

FUNCTIONS

A DEFINITION

Definition Function

A function is a rule that assigns to each input exactly one output. You can think of a function as a machine: for every input you give it, the machine produces an output according to a specific rule.

Ex:

- The rule is: add 2.
- The input is: 3.
- The output is: $3+2=5$.

